

Become a Pre-Conference Session Sponsor at Immunity for Health 2024!

Elevate your company's presence by hosting a Pre-Conference Session at our annual meeting Immunity for Health, taking place on October 16-17, 2024, at Rodebol Events in Ghent.

Why Sponsor a Pre-Conference Session of IfH2024?

High Visibility and Impact

Position your company at the forefront of the vaccine ecosystem by sharing your knowledge and solutions with influential attendees. This sponsorship offers unparalleled visibility and the chance to make a lasting impression.

Showcase Your Expertise

This is your exclusive opportunity to host or to lead a session tailored to your expertise. Select a format that best suits your needs and present your innovative solutions, cutting-edge research, or strategic insights within the vaccine space to a highly engaged audience.

Engage with key Audience

Connect with Immunity for Health attendees, including scientists, biotech & pharma professionals, service providers and key opinion leaders. Your session will foster dynamic discussions and invaluable collaborations aimed at advancing the development of vaccines and immunotherapy.
